

Strange Pro Race Steel Rear Brake Kits

Strange Engineering has been the leader in drag racing brake kits since 1965 and is the only manufacturer of one piece forged steel brake rotors. The one piece design is far superior to common bolt together two piece rotors in weight reduction, strength and longevity. All Strange Pro Race rotors are slotted. Slotting was developed by Strange to minimize warp, while maximizing weight reduction. Every kit features the sought after 4-piston directional caliper. The directional caliper accomplishes superior bridge bolt strength at only 2.70 pounds. Strange directional calipers feature 1.750" and 1.625" OD stainless steel pistons to assure optimal pad wear and exceptional pedal/handle feel. Every Strange caliper is internally ported and include .100" square o-rings to assist piston retraction. Brake kit weighs only 23.70 lbs. with soft pads.

Each Rear Kit Includes: Strange 4-piston Billet directional calipers, forged slotted steel rotors, soft pads (optional metallic pads- use suffix "M"- same price), billet aluminum mounts and necessary mounting hardware.
